

music unleashed

OREGON MUSIC FESTIVAL

Zvonimir Hačko, Director/Chief Conductor

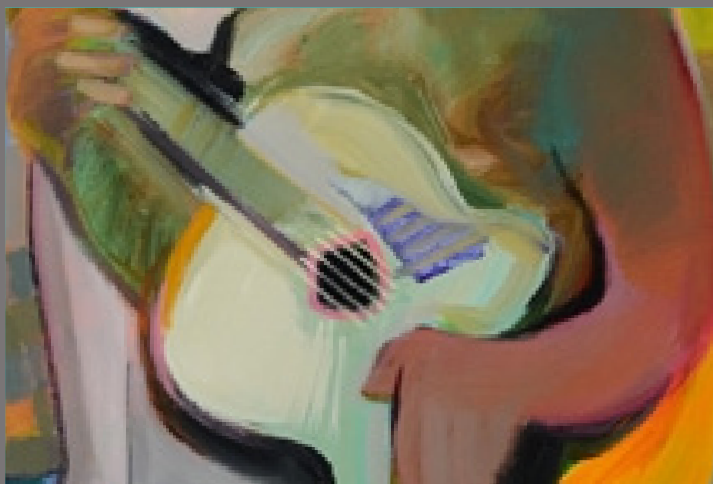

2022

OREGON MUSIC FESTIVAL 2022 SEASON: SPRING/SUMMER/FALL EDITIONS

FEATURED ARTISTS COSTA/YEH/BLUESTONE/ DRAUGSVOLL/NESWICK/HAC^v

Marking the ending concert of the festival's 2022 Season, is Aaron Copland's Fanfare for the Common Man which has been designated as OMF's new sonar signature for the opening of the festival's activities. Following it is Jennifer Higdon's mesmerizing new work for six soloists and orchestra receiving here its Oregon Premiere with the soloists for whom the work was written:

Saturday
October 15, 2022 - 7:30 p.m.
FOUR CONCERTOS - CELEBRATING VIRTUOSITY

First Baptist Church, Portland

Celil Refik Kaya, guitar

Joel Bluestone, percussion/timpani

Geir Draugsvoll, bayan (accordion)

Bruce Neswick, organ

PEARL (Chamber Orchestra)

Zvonimir Hačko, conductor

Rodrigo: Concierto de Aranjuez

for Guitar and Orchestra

James Lee: Concerto for Percussion, Bayan & Orchestra

OMF commission; world premiere

Piazzolla: Concerto "Hommage a Liege"

for bayan, guitar and strings

Poulenc: Concerto in G Minor

for Organ, String Orchestra & Timpani

The Four Concerto's concert design is both unusual and exciting. With it, the traditional idea of Overture, Concerto, Symphony is put aside, inviting the listener to a new type of orchestral celebration. Superb soloists, vivacious and virtuosic music, and celebrated composers all add up to an experience rarely encountered in classical performances. The cultural and ethnic variety that the soloists bring to the concert is also unique,

TICKETS

$45, $30, $20

Students and senior citizens at 50% discount

Purchase on line at oregonmusicfest.org/tickets

OREGON
MUSIC
FESTIVAL

818 SW 3rd Ave., No. 251
Portland, OR 97204

OREGON MUSIC FESTIVAL 2022 SEASON

Spring/Summer/Fall Editions
oregonmusicfest.org

music unleashed

OREGON
MUSIC
FESTIVAL
2022